Why Argus Clear Vision?

Administered by Davis Vision

The Benefits of Vision Care are Clear

Even the slightest vision impairment can make it difficult to complete the simplest of tasks; inevitably, the need for vision care is easily identifiable.

Since consumers recognize the need for an eye exam, and understand that the appointment will be quick, easy, and painless, eye exams have the highest rate of appointment compliance. Beneficial to the consumer as well as Argus Dental & Vision, comprehensive eye exams are the least expensive and most impactful wellness investment.

Not only will an eye exam provide a solution for vision correction, it can also provide early detection of diabetes, hypertension, and even preventable stroke and cardiac disease.

Offering a vision plan to your employees and their families can only lead to happier, healthier, and more productive individuals, ultimately outweighing the cost in premium by reducing sick time usage as well as employee turnover.

80% of employees say they are interested in a vision plan¹

90% of employees agree that voluntary benefits add value to their benefits package²

Argus Dental & Vision and Davis Vision are working hard to reframe eye care. For many people, taking care of their eyes can be complicated, expensive, and exhausting due to deceptive prices, baffling terms and conditions and a lack of empathy. As they struggle to comprehend their vision plan benefits, they question why buying a pair of glasses is so difficult.

We provide each of our members with transparency on how to shop, accessibility to more choices, and simplicity when using their benefits.

How do we make it happen?

Transparency

Helping people look and feel their best goes beyond paying for exams and fabricating designer frames, it means giving them the power to make truly informed decisions about their eye care. The Davis Vision's supply chain ownership translates into uncomplicated, affordable vision coverage for clients and their employees.

Accessibility

Davis Vision offers access to both independent eye care providers and a diverse selection of retailers. This robust network allows members to choose any frame, anywhere, many of which are covered-in-full by their vision care plan with Davis Vision.

Simplicity

It's as simple as it sounds: Argus Dental & Vision and Davis Vision meet customers where they want to be met. With consistent in-network benefits and the lowest out-of-pocket costs, it's no wonder that more than 21 million funded members know us, like us and trust us.
